

Taro.
We and light! we bend to thee,
In the pouting fields,
The golden sky.
Gank thee—God, we praise thee, He kneel, Father, to thee.
Jephthah now appears and sings a fine air of his gratitude to the Giver of all low beautiful the light at us in the morn, ne steam that ripples bright, he flowers and ripening corn. hen lily let me bow—ond, timbly, fervently—and g my virgin heart ly G—my king, to thee," &c.
A furious elcomes the approach of the warrior's train: no common harmony: Veloc to our peaceful bowers, r's still note be silent now," &c.
A ch of errors succeeds in recitation; then fol a set-chorus of women and warriors, who sing the following:
"From v and ill, and ripening field we come,
The Lorath b's d thine arms with victory, And Juddives among the free," &c.
Jephthah's daughter now sings a beautiful air as shemeets her father, unconscious of the vow he has made: it is melancholy doom that awaits her beginning—
"Ther train hath come to greet thee, The valles with their song:
Thine archild the first to meet thee,
And the al melody prolong," &c. he father cries:
"My tentous child, sweet mountain flower, Bright shan in a darksome hour, Why firt come forth to greet thy sire With tnef song and youthful choir?
Despair—dipair hath seized my heart, I cannot kistly dimpled cheek.
All—all, thi art my life to me,
And I mustive to weep alone; Sleeping tdream my child of thee, Waking to hink of thee and moan," &c.
The first parcloes with a charming air by the daughter of Jephthah, while bidding farewell to he father and companions:
"Cease, troubled bosom, cease," &c. an a splendichorus, as a finale, of sopranos and bapes.
The second part opens with another fine chorus in teitation very appropriate and beautiful. The airing by Jephthah, addressed to his daughter, is deeply affecting, and excellent as a musical composition:
"I've watched thee with a father's care," &c., and ends with a magnificent finale, in full chorus.
"Tis done—Jehovah's cause has triumphed, and the tribute has been paid—the blood of Juda's daughter has cancelled Jephthah's vow, &c.
"Sing triumphantly to the Lord, The king of earth, and seas, and skies," &c.
The whole production manifests a high degree of poetical and musical talent, and will, I have no doubt, when effectively brought out, crown the unassuming author with the laurel wreath to which his merit entitles him.
I am happy to learn that it is the intention of Mr. Hewitt to have this fine Oratorio brought out in New York, where its merits will be justly appreciated, and where proper justice will be done to its various excellences and beauties as a musical composition. W.

AN ARMY DOCTOR'S TESTIMONY.
"I have wandered a good deal about the world," says Dr. Jackson, and "Inever followed any prescribed rules in anything; my health has been tried in all ways; and by the aid of temperance and hard work, I have worn out two armies in two wars, and probably could wear out another, before my period of old age arrives. I eat no animal food, drink no wine or malt liquors, or spirits of any kind; I wear no flannel; and neither regard wind nor rain, heat nor cold, where business is in the way."—Temperance Recorder.

MAN.—The glory of man does not consist in his being a master, or a rich man, or a nobleman, or a king; it consists in his being a man, in his being formed in the image of his Creator.—Saurin.
Evil is in the world, and the permission of it is certainly consistent with the attributes of God. Our inability to account for it is another thing, and the fact is not affected by it.—Ibid.

WARDEN, aged 67 years. He was Secretary of the United States Legation in France, nearly forty years ago, when General Armstrong was Minister, and was subsequently appointed Consul of the United States at Paris, which office he held for several years. He was a member of the French Academy, and a man of letters and of varied learning. He was, it is believed, a native of Ireland.
At Alexandria, on the 31st instant, Mrs. SARAH L.
WATERS, wife of Thomas A. Waters, after a protracted illness of pulmonary disease.

THE MEMBERS OF THE DISTRICT ASSEMBLY, U. S. of T., will meet at Dr. Howard's Lecture Room, corner of 11th and F streets, this (Saturday) evening, at 7 o'clock. The punctual attendance of all the representatives is most earnestly requested, as business of much importance to the cause of Temperance and this Order, will be brought before the Assembly.
LAMBERT S. BECK,
Asst. Recording Sec'y.

THE COMMITTEE having control of the "Columbian Fountain," will meet at Mr. S.

CUTLERY, TOOLS, CUTLERY, &c.
JUST RECEIVED FROM THE EAST, at the can Hardware House, between 10th and 11th streets, Pennsylvania Avenue.
The tools are made of the best materials, and superior to any ever brought to this part of the country, and about 50 per cent cheaper. The cutlery is manufactured by Messrs. Ibbotson & Horner, Auburn, New York, and is warranted superior to any imported, Rodgers & Sons not excepted, and is at least 30 per cent. cheaper.
We have also received a splendid assortment of House furnishing and building materials, which we will sell uncommonly cheap for cash, among which are a few pearl-white door knobs, very scarce.
Nov. 8-3f WOODWARD & KING.

WASHINGTON MEDICAL INSTITUTE.
THE subscribers have fitted up a spacious Lecture-room at the northeast corner of F and 11th streets, and purpose preparing young gentlemen by lectures and examinations for the best medical schools of the Union, but especially for the Columbian Medical College in this city. The Institute will open on the second Monday of November.
The annual course of instruction will embrace two sessions. The first, from the second Monday of November till the last of February, will be devoted wholly to full examinations on the subjects lectured on in the Columbian Medical College.
The second session will commence on the second Monday of March and terminate the last of October; during which instruction will be given on the various branches of medicine by lectures and daily examinations. Students may enter for one or both sessions. Terms made known on application.

Important to Gentlemen.
EDWARD McCUBBIN has handsomely fitted up the three-story house recently erected on the site of his former stand, where he will be happy to resume his business as a barber and hair dresser.
He very respectfully invites a return of his old and esteemed customers, and solicits the patronage of the public generally to the Temple of Fashion, No. 1, on 8th street, near Pennsylvania avenue.
With the most competent assistants, and every description of materials that can render his operations a luxury, instead of a dull, sleepy process, he flatters himself that to him will be accorded the credit of keeping pace with the times in all that has a tendency to add to the comfort and improve the appearance of the outer man.
Not only in the face has Nature made Its comeliness and beauty to abound, But in the scissors' edge and razor's blade
The aids to loveliness are ever found.

June 14 2-y

CONGRESSIONAL INTELLIGENCER.
The proprietors of the NATIONAL INTELLIGEN-CER, in order to meet the wishes of those whose circumstances or inclination do not allow them to subscribe even to a weekly Washington paper during the whole year, have determined to issue during each session of Congress, a weekly sheet styled "THE CONGRESSIONAL INTELLIGEN-CER," to be devoted exclusively to the publication, as far as its limits will permit, of the Proceedings of both Houses of Congress, and Official Reports and Documents connected therewith, including a complete official copy of all Acts passed by Congress during the session.
To bring the price within the means of every man who can read, the charge for this paper will be for the first session of each Congress One Dollar, and for the second session of each Congress half a Dollar.
The price of the CONGRESSIONAL INTELLIGEN-CER, to be issued on each Wednesday during the approaching Session of Congress, will therefore be One Dollar paid in advance.
To enlarge upon the value, to those who take no newspaper from Washington, of this publication, containing an impartial but necessarily abbreviated account of the Proceedings in Congress, including an authentic official copy of all the laws passed during the session, would be needless. The man who takes no such paper ought to take one, if he does not prefer remaining ignorant of what most nearly concerns his own destiny, and that of his family and of his posterity for ever.
When six copies are ordered and paid for by any one person, a deduction of one-sixth will be made from the price, that is to say, a remittance of Five Dollars will command six copies of the Congressional Intelligencer for the next session.
A remittance of Ten Dollars will secure thirteen copies; and for Fifteen Dollars remitted from any one person or place twenty copies will be forwarded.
Payment in advance in all cases is indispensable.

WEEKLY NATIONAL INTELLIGENCER.
This paper, being made up of such portion of the contents of the National Intelligencer proper as can be compressed within the compass of a single newspaper, continues to be issued and mailed to subscribers every Saturday at Two Dollars a year, payable in advance in all cases—no account being opened with subscribers to the weekly paper.
To bring this paper yet more nearly within the reach of such as desire to take by the year a cheap paper from the seat of the General Government, a reduction will be made in the price of it where a number of copies are ordered and paid for by any one person or association at the following rates:
For Ten Dollars six copies will be sent.
For Twenty Dollars thirteen copies; and For each sum of Ten Dollars, above Twenty, eight copies will be forwarded; so that a remittance of Fifty dollars will command thirty-seven copies.
Publishers of papers throughout the several States and Territories who will give a single insertion to this advertisement (with this note annexed) and send one of their papers to this office with the advertisement annexed therein, shall receive the Weekly National Intelligencer for one year free of charge.

PROSPECTUS OF THE INVESTIGATOR.
This Journal will be devoted to the subjects of Religion, Morality, Science, &c. Religious subjects will be treated in a temperate but fearless manner, and the tenets of the various sects, as occasion may require, will be examined with candor and impartiality. No personalities calculated to displease, will ever be admitted.
Education and Temperance will be advocated.
Party Politics will not be touched upon; but dis-passionate arguments on general and abstract questions may occasionally appear; and Political questions forming a connection with Religion (such as, the union of Church and State, &c.) will be freely discussed.
As to scientific subjects, preference will be extended to those of a practical and useful character.
The ET CETERA will embrace a variety of topics of general information, et cetera.
The articles will, chiefly, be original. When a selection can be made with decided advantage, it will be done. The subjects will be varied as much as possible, to suit the various tastes of the community.
The first number may be considered as a specimen, though containing less variety, it is believed, than the succeeding ones will contain.
It is intended to be monthly, and of 32 pages.
It has to make its way into the world without a father's name to help it, as many a child has been obliged to do before it; and, if it only receives that encouragement which they who first help themselves usually receive from the American public, it will not despair of success.
The terms are: 12 1-2 cents each number; $1 50 for the year in advance.
Those wishing to receive the work regularly, can do so by calling at the Periodical agencies of Whitaker & Co., Taylor & Co., Penn. Avenue; Kennedy's Bookstore, F street, in Washington; Clement's agency, Georgetown; Bell & Entwistle, Alexandria; Shurtz & Taylor's, Baltimore; and at the principal Periodical agencies in Philadelphia, New York and Boston.
It would be a great convenience to the Publisher to have the names of subscribers deposited at either of the above places, so that the work can be sent regularly.

PROSPECTUS OF THE NEW LIBRARY OF LAW AND EQUITY, under the direction of Francis J. Trubart, esq., of Philadelphia; Hon. Ellis Lewis, of Lancaster; and Wilson Mo-Candless, Esq., of Pittsburgh.
This work contains the best productions of English law authors, without regard to priority of claim on the part of any American publisher. Such books are now notoriously too dear. The reason is, that as fast as they appear, they become monopolies in the hands of booksellers in the Atlantic cities. Under the plea of right, acquired by the addition of notes of American decisions, the latter claim an undivided title to those works, and set a burdensome price on them. The publishers of the work now offered to the profession throughout the Union, will not respect such titles, but will reprint the standard British law books as fast as they emanate from the London market. Should new editions of the works of such writers as Starkie, the Chittys, Stephen, and Archbold, appear, they shall also be included; and digests of equity and law decisions—works which have been studiously kept out of the Law Library published at Philadelphia—shall have a place in the proposed new one, together with every new valuable English treatise on chancery or common law.
This work will be issued monthly, in numbers of 160 pages, printed on fine white paper, and good new long primer type, at seven dollars per annum, payable half yearly.

NEW SERIES OF THE CONGRESSIONAL GLOBE AND APPENDIX.
[To be Stereotyped.]
THE undersigned originated the mode of jour-nalizing the proceedings of Congress which presented them entire. Their publication was the first and only one that gave each successive step in every measure in both branches of Congress; a brief of all the debates; every important vote; and an Appendix, including at full length all the revised speeches delivered during the session. The work thus conducted by them is a most perfect political history. The Senators from the States and the Representatives from every section of the Union bring with them into Congress a knowledge of the feelings, sentiments, and interests of their several constituencies. Public opinion, and the public information, as it exists among those they represent, are embodied in them; and in the crucible of Congress the wisdom of our times is brought to its test, and is there concentrated, in directing the political movements of the whole country. The impulses thus given through Congress from every quarter react upon the nation as a whole, and all its component parts made to move in co-operation. The press cannot be more usefully employed than in condensing and again spreading abroad the intelligence of our free country, tending to such happy results through our almost miraculously adjusted State and National institutions.
Having identified ourselves with the plan of advancing the usefulness of Congress by publishing full and impartial reports, and having a large mass of the Congressional Globe and Appendix, issued during the last ten years, which would be impaired in value to us and utility to the public if the work were discontinued, we have a double motive to prompt us to extend it through a new series. We are resolved, if possible, to give it permanence, and to hand it down to successors as a standard work worthy of being maintained and improved.
We shall enter upon our new undertaking without being distracted or burdened by any associate labors of the press; and, thus unincumbered, shall hope to make the new series a step in advance of the former in all points of execution. With a view to accomplish this, we shall be (one or the other) always in attendance in Congress; will compare the manuscripts of our own reporters with the daily reports of the city papers; correct all by our own observation and knowledge of the proceedings; and in all important matters, where that will not assure us of the fidelity of the reports, we will procure the aid of the members themselves to obtain the exact scope of their remarks. The work, thus authenticated, will be stereotyped, which is a guaranty that we will make it as perfect as it is possible for us to make it, as we would not incur the expense of stereotyping it if we did not feel confident of its superiority over all works of the kind which have been or are likely to be published. Stereotyping the work will enable us to supply lost or mutilated numbers, which we will do without making any charge for them.
The Congressional Globe is made up of the daily proceedings of the two Houses of Congress. The speeches of the members are condensed, to bring them into a readable length. All the resolutions offered, or motions made, are given in the mover's own words; and the yeas and nays on all the important questions. It is printed with small type—brevier and nonpareil—on a double royal sheet, in quarto form, each number containing sixteen royal quarto pages.
The Appendix is made up of the President's annual message, the reports of the principal officers of the Government that accompany it, and all the long speeches of members of Congress, written out or revised by themselves. It is printed in the same form as the Congressional Globe, and usually makes about the same number of pages.
We print the numbers as fast as the proceedings of Congress furnish enough matter for a number.
During the first month or six weeks of a session there is rarely more business done than will make one number of the Congressional Globe and one number of the Appendix a week; but during the remainder of a session there is usually sufficient matter for two or three numbers of each every week.
The next session will be a long one, and it is supposed will be unusually interesting; therefore we calculate that the Congressional Globe and Appendix will each make near one thousand large quarto pages, printed in small type—brevier and nonpareil. We furnish complete indexes to both at the end of a session.
We have on hand the Congressional Globe and Appendix for the last twelve sessions of Congress, of which five were long and seven were short sessions. The Congressional Globe and Appendix for each session are bound together in excellent binding, with Russia backs and corners. Our prices for them, thus bound together, are $3 a volume for a short, and $5 a volume for a long session, making $46 for a full set. Those who want the back volumes should apply for them immediately, as they are in demand. The last Congress subscribed for two hundred and twenty-six sets; and it is probable that the next will subscribe for at least as many more, as the proceedings of Congress for the last eight years cannot be procured from any other source, Gales & Seaton having stopped printing their Register of Debates in 1837. A few hundred copies of the first volume is all we have on hand.
The next session of Congress will be a long one, and therefore the Congressional Globe and Appendix should be $2 for the session, which is the price we charge for the unbound numbers of the past long sessions; but we have concluded to reduce the price, as follows, until the first day of next January, after which time the Congressional Globe and Appendix will each be $2 for the session, and no deduc-tion will be made on account of the number of copies taken.

TERMS.
For one copy of the Congressional Globe $1 50 For one copy of the Appendix 1 50 For four copies of either, or part of both 5 00 For twenty-five copies of either, or part or both 25 00
The money may be remitted by mail at our risk.
It should be here by the 7th of December, at farthest, to procure all the numbers promptly.
Proprietors of newspapers who copy this Prospectus, and send us one copy of their paper containing it, shall have their names entered on our books for one copy of the Congressional Globe and Appendix during the session.
Our prices for these papers are so low that we cannot afford to credit them out; therefore no person need consume his time in writing for them and not sending the money. BLAIR & RIVES.
